

Poetry Diversified 2015: A Human Experience Anthology

Poetry Diversified 2015 A Human Experience Anthology is the fourth anthology published by PRA Publishing for Poetry Matters Celebration, to showcase the winners of the 2013-2015 annual Poetry Literary Prize sponsored by the Poetry Matters Project. Winners represent poets from around the world. Poets range in age and education from middle school to senior citizens. For some of the poets this will be their first time ever seeing their work in print and for others this will represent multiple wins. The human experiences shared are cross generational, observations of worldview. We are proud to present these voices in poetry.
