

Contemporary Sisters (The Beginning Book 1)

This is the fast paced story of three sisters who live three very different lives. The eldest is Eve who is a go getter, career oriented and a single mother. She has had a series of unsuccessful relationships and decides to take a break from dating for a while and believes her life is complete until she bumps into her sexy new neighbour who makes her rethink things. Carmen is the middle sister. Once she had been a beautiful model travelling the world until she fell in love with a sexy footballer but life as a WAG was not as glamorous as she had thought it would be when she ends up with two children, struggling with her weight and coming to terms with the possibility that her once perfect hubby could be cheating. She realises that money is not everything. Noelle is the youngest sister is in a wonderful relationship with an amazing man but stuck in a crappy job with a pervy boss who seems to be obsessed with her. Her dire financial situation is not helped when her man loses his job and things in her life take a dramatic turn....
